

Northeast MI Great Lakes Stewardship Initiative Community Based Education 101 Workshop

Presenter: Dave Krebs

Learn about Great Lakes stewardship education strategies and resources available to develop and grow a school/community partnership project!

Join Dave Krebs from the Western MI Great Lakes Stewardship Initiative for an introduction into community based education.

Learn about:

Key components of Community Based Education

- +Community/school partnership
- +Enhanced student learning
- +Environmental stewardship

Opportunities to engage youth in local stewardship projects and activities

How to help students develop ownership in their community through school/Community partnerships

How educators can receive support through professional development

Opportunities with Northeast Michigan Great Lakes Stewardship Initiative

Who Should Attend?

Educators from Northeast Michigan interested in:

- +Enhancing youth development through community service and Great Lakes natural resource stewardship projects
- +Earning eligibility to apply for NE MI GLSI mini grants (up to $6,000)

Who: Teachers, Administrators, Community Partners

When: April 23, 2010

Where: COP ESD

Time: 9AM -3 PM

Please register online at coppd.org

Leadership for the Northeast Michigan Great Lakes Stewardship Initiative provided in partnership by: Alpena-Montmorency-Alcona ESD, Cheboygan-Otsego-Presque Isle ESD, MSU Extension 4-H Youth Programs, Michigan Sea Grant, Community Foundation for Northeast Michigan, Northeast Michigan Council of Governments, NOAA Thunder Bay National Marine Sanctuary, US Fish and Wildlife Service, Huron Pines, AMA/Iosco MS Center, Alcona and Onaway Schools.